

unILINK

July 12, 2018

This week, join the #IShopCanada campaign, participate in an online consultation on pharmacare and learn how your union can help collectively negotiate long-lasting solutions to heat stress. Also in this issue, more on what's new in bargaining and organizing.

WHAT'S HOT

Local 16-O and Compass Minerals return to the bargaining table, as picketing

TAKE ACTION

The federal government wants to hear from you about implementing national continues at the Goderich mine in Ontario.

READ MORE

pharmacare, add your voice with this poll.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor sponsors the inaugural Masters of Indigenous Games starting July 12 in Toronto and entrance is free for all!

READ MORE

Another 216 bus drivers at Campeau Bus Lines Ltd in Durham join the ranks of the now 1,700 school bus drivers Unifor represents.

Bell Clerical bargaining proves successful as membership grows due to contracted positions being converted to the union.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor's two-day President's Conference underscores the driving spirit of activism in the union.

READ MORE

With temperatures soaring, heat stress can be a real concern. Learn more about its symptoms and tips for staying cool.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Several unions join Local 229 Port Arthur Health Centre strike rally in Thunder Bay, to demand good jobs for women.

READ MORE

Casino Ajax workers, Local 1090 have voted 99 per cent in favour of strike action if a fair settlement cannot be reached.

READ MORE

Closure of two hospitals in Nova Scotia and replacement with community health centres leaves many unanswered questions.

READ MORE

Victoria Times Colonist on Vancouver Island will shutdown local news and leave press workers without jobs this September.

READ MORE

Members at Flair Air, Local 2002, ratify their first collective agreement, including overtime rates, wage increases.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Striking workers at the world's largest salt mine are resisting mandatory overtime, and concessions. Hear their story.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Join the #IShopCanada movement today by using these proudly Unifor made products and services. Be sure to share!

READ MORE