Unifor rallies auto parts supplier members as the union seeks fair agreements. Fish harvester members launch free fish protest. Plus anticipation builds as Unifor Convention 2019 is set to begin in Quebec City.

🔥 WHAT'S HOT

The Unifor Convention 2019 app is ready to download to help delegates connect, follow

📣 TAKE ACTION

Fish harvesters in Newfoundland and Labrador rally and give away free the agenda, learn more about speakers, and find social media channels.

cod to protest the illegal lockout by fish processing companies.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Hundreds attend a rally and picnic in solidarity with independent auto parts supplier workers facing plant closures and ongoing negotiations of restructuring agreements.

READ MORE

Nemak betrays workers and taxpayers with closure of Windsor auto parts plant with surprise announcement after extension of collective agreement to 2022.

The countdown to Convention is on. Last-minute preparations are underway for an exciting week of discussion and debate, engaging guest speakers and union solidarity.

READ MORE

READ MORE

📝 BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor bargaining committee calls SaskTel offer an insult to workers.

READ MORE

De Luxe Paper Products members vote overwhelmingly in support of new collective agreement.

READ MORE

Members at IMP Aerospace in Halifax vote a staggering 95.5 per cent support for strike action. Read the complete update from the bargaining committee to members.

READ MORE

↻ IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

#SAVE LOCAL NEWS

Unifor values the role that Canadian media plays in our democracy. Watch the new Media Action Plan 'Journalism Matters' ad.

READ MORE

↻ RESOURCES

Treatment & Prevention
Ticks and Lyme Disease

Ticks that carry Lyme disease live in woodlands, tall grasses and bushes. Protect yourself:

Learn to prevent exposure to ticks and spot the symptoms of lyme disease. Download the new information poster by the Unifor National Joint Health and Safety Committee.

READ MORE