

July 18, 2019

Unifor calls for compensation for bus drivers assaulted on the job. New members at Halifax's Discovery Centre secure progressive first collective agreement while Ontario Metro workers gain new full-time jobs at the bargaining table. Plus, the Unifor Social Justice Fund provides the opportunity for girls in India to obtain an education.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Members take to the streets at the St. John's Pride Parade.

READ MORE

Unifor has made the consequences of climate change a priority with a focus on workers and their communities. Members are invited to attend an informative national conference 'Just Transition – Ensuring a Future that Works for All'.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Young workers at Halifax Discovery Centre craft their first agreement with a focus on workplace diversity and inclusivity.

READ MORE

More than 100 bus drivers are assaulted every year in B.C. Unifor's Tana MacKay told a government review of WorkSafeBC that compensation claims are routinely denied.

READ MORE

Hotel workers joining Unifor in Kenney's back yard.

READ MORE

Unifor Convention 2019 draws international guest speakers and an exclusive performance by Blue Rodeo.

READ MORE

Unifor Social Justice Fund aids female literacy program.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Tentative agreement reached between Metro grocery stores and Local 414, covering almost 4,000 workers at 27 Ontario locations.

Local 1285 members at Chartwell Montgomery Village long-term care facility voted 89 per cent in favour of ratification of new agreement.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Canada's oil and gas industries remain vital as the move towards alternative energy sources continues. Watch our video on building a strong energy future.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Need house or car insurance? Enjoy access to exclusive benefits and discounts by using the buying power of your union.

READ MORE

Unifor