

December 17, 2020

Unifor reverses WHI contracting-out at Bell in Ontario and Quebec, MDA gets Canadarm3 contract, a lack of PPE leads to a COVID-19 outbreak in Windsor, Unifor helps shape tourism in BC, Toronto Star columnist Shree Paradkar honoured, and Unifor's SCF doubles donations to women's shelters.

 WHAT'S HOT

Watch rank-and-file members in the energy sector talking about the

 TAKE ACTION

Workers, particularly in hospitality, are at risk of losing access to potentially life-saving union's campaign to protect good jobs.

prescription drugs. We need a solution to this crisis now. Send a message that Canada's workers need emergency drug coverage.

READ MORE

WATCH VIDEO

IN THE NEWS

Bell workers secure the reversal of Wireless Home Internet (WHI) contracting-out in Ontario and Quebec.

READ MORE

Unifor members at MDA to build the next generation Canadarm.

Lack of PPE for health workers contributes to outbreak at Windsor long-term care home, making it clear that not all LTC facilities are taking their responsibilities seriously.

READ MORE

Unifor helped with a new plan for the tourism industry that generates $20 billion in revenues and employs more than 160,000 British Columbians.

READ MORE

Unifor stands with migrant rights groups around the world to recognize International Migrants Day as the right of migrants are hurt by the pandemic.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Toronto Star race and gender columnist Shree Paradkar is recognized by the Urban Alliance on Race Relations for her human rights reporting.

READ MORE

Unifor's Social Justice Fund doubles donation to women's shelters across Canada during this difficult year.

READ MORE

The federal government's new climate plan commits to many steps to cut pollution and create jobs, but leaves out details about the transition for workers.

READ MORE

Unifor stands in solidarity with the farmers in India's Punjab and Haryana states protesting the deregulation of agricultural markets.

READ MORE

Local 100 and Council 4000's negotiations with VIA Rail are ongoing, get the latest on negotiations or subscribe to RailLine today.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 414 and Sobeys have reached a tentative collective agreement, covering 138 grocery store workers in Kincardine, Ontario.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

On December 10 members across Alberta wore Unifor gear to show off solidarity in the face of provincial attacks on their rights at work.

RESOURCES

Unifor's COVID-19 website has been updated again, adding a new tab to help members find information about the federal government's income support programs.

READ MORE

READ MORE