

Ontario Unifor members rally against Ford government cuts. Bombardier members call for provincial and federal transit funding to save streetcar production. Skilled Trades workers volunteer time and expertise to renovate a shelter for the homeless. Plus, Unifor is in the pink as members stand against bullying.

WHAT'S HOT

Pink Shirt Day is an annual day to raise awareness and spark action against bullying. This year, hundreds of Unifor members joined together to put an end to harmful behaviour and create a safer space for all.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

Unifor Skilled Trades members step up to completely rebuild a dilapidated kitchen at the Hope Haven shelter for homeless men in just ten days.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members joined thousands of workers across Ontario to protest Doug Ford's re-election campaign policy conference in Niagara Falls.

READ MORE

Bombardier workers say it's time for all levels of government to fund Toronto's transit vehicle orders and preserve good union jobs in Thunder Bay.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 444 President Dave Cassidy joins Windsor-West MP Brian Masse to introduce single sport betting legislation in Ottawa.

READ MORE

Leadership from Northern Ontario met in Thunder Bay to reflect on priorities and plan for 2020 as members' voiced their continued commitment in the fight against conservative agendas.

As Black History Month concludes we share four more stories of our Black member activists who echo this years theme "Celebrating our history and making our own."

READ MORE

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor Canadian Air Navigation Specialists members reach a tentative agreement with Nav Canada.

READ MORE

School bus driver members achieve gains following company ownership change.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Fire Banda! WATCH why the CEO of Co-op FCL responsible for locking out more than 700 refinery members needs to go.

WATCH VIDEO

RESOURCES

Did your local design a beautiful poster, write a thoughtful article or launch a powerful campaign in 2019? Submit your work for a Canadian Association of Labour Media (CALM) Award before March 26!

READ MORE

Unifor