

November 12, 2020

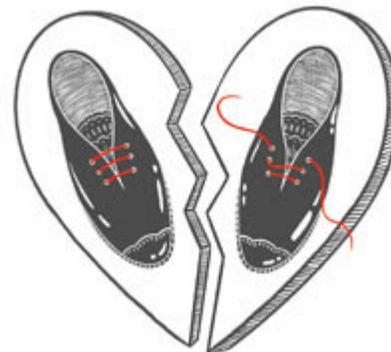

Unifor members at General Motors overwhelmingly ratified a new collective agreement, the aviation sector continues to advocate for a safe reopening, Unifor pushes back against an attack on health and safety in Alberta and read about the role unions can play in the fight for affordable housing.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

While governments around the world have stepped up to support Aviation workers, Canada's government has remained silent. Tell your MP it's time for Canada to develop an aviation plan.

WATCH VIDEO

Join the Day of Action for National Standards in LTC on Thursday, November 19.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

GM members ratified a historic 3-year agreement securing a $1.3B investment that returns truck assembly to Oshawa, in-sources product for St. Catharines and stabilizes Woodstock PDC.

READ MORE

To save our aviation industry from total collapse, the Canadian government needs to take its cue from countries worldwide that

In Alberta, Jason Kenney introduces legislation to claw back health and have developed strategies to support employers and workers in a post-COVID-19 world.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 594 thanks the many, many unions and organizations that helped them during the 7-month lockout.

READ MORE

safety protections.

READ MORE

The Ontario budget begins to set the course for economic recovery, but Ontario workers must maintain pressure for a fair and equitable vision.

READ MORE

Local 100 is going back to the bargaining table with VIA Rail, along with a federal conciliation officer.

READ MORE

Striking Dominion workers conduct ratification votes this week on final offer from Loblaw Companies Limited, during week 12 of ongoing strike action.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Watch Unifor National President Jerry Dias announced a new collective agreement at General Motors.

WATCH VIDEO

Unions have a vital role to play in the fight for affordable housing. Read the new Researcher's Brief.

READ MORE