

November 19, 2020

Unifor members at Gate Gourmet are locked out after their employer tried to use the pandemic to gut their collective agreement, Unifor debunks falsehoods about government spending and debt, Elections Manitoba throws out complaints against Unifor by the ruling Conservatives, today is Trans Day of Remembrance, and Ontario area meetings go virtual.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Watch Unifor researcher Kaylie Tiessen introduce the new resource for workers to separate myth from fact when it comes to government spending, debt, and deficits.

WATCH VIDEO

Register for Unifor's December 6 vigil and action on the National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Workers at Gate Gourmet In Montreal were locked out suddenly after the company tabled deep concession demands, taking advantage of the pandemic to gut the collective agreement.

READ MORE

Canadians have long been fed falsehoods about how government finances work. Unifor's new online tool helps sort the myths from facts.

READ MORE

The Manitoba Commissioner of Elections has dismissed all four complaints filed by the Progressive Conservative Party against Unifor in the 2019 election.

READ MORE

Unifor unites with a growing movement around the world in acknowledging November 20 as the Trans Day of Remembrance (TDOR).

READ MORE

Unifor's Ontario Area Meetings made the digital shift, as hundreds of members tuned into online virtual recent meetings.

READ MORE

On World Toilet Day, Unifor joins international unions to call for access to decent sanitation facilities for frontline transportation workers.

READ MORE

Local 100 and Council 4000 both met with VIA Rail, leveraging the strength of 2,100 maintenance workers, on-board service personnel, chefs, sales agents and customer service staff.

READ MORE

Newfoundland Dominion store members vote to ratify new contract, bringing 12-week-long strike action to an end.

READ MORE

Reducing the barriers to unionization should be a top priority for the John Horgan BCNDP government.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

In an important update in the fight against COVID-19, the Public Health Agency of Canada (PHAC) acknowledges that the coronavirus can be spread through aerosol transmission. Unifor is updating its COVID-19 resources to reflect the new directive.

READ MORE