

January 21, 2021

Unifor negotiates battery electric vehicle production for GM's Cami plant, join the push for paid sick days, Unifor stands up for airline workers, members discuss cultural safety training on anti-Indigenous racism webinar, Newfoundland and Labrador goes to the polls and Jerry Dias urges action on building transit vehicles.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

There is still time to register to participate in Unifor's Vigil for COVID heroes today at 6pm ET on Zoom.

REGISTER HERE

We can win paid sick days for all! Make the call today to demand sick days for all workers in Ontario.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor Local 88's newly ratified collective agreement with General Motors will transform the CAMI Assembly Plant into Canada's first mass-market producer of electric commercial vans.

READ MORE

Air Canada's decision to suspend Jazz flights to Yellowknife, Kamloops, Gander and Goose Bay regional airports is one more blow to remote communities already suffering from the current crisis in the airlines industry.

READ MORE

Porter Airlines uses the pandemic as an excuse to terminate health care coverage and stop paying workers on the Canada Emergency Wage Subsidy (CEWS) for its furloughed workers.

READ MORE

In an Education Department webinar, Unifor members discussed cultural safety training and other tactics for combating anti-Indigenous racism in the health care system.

READ MORE

Pledge to vote in the NL election and see how parties can ensure good jobs for all, and support for key industries.

READ MORE

Bombardier Thunder Bay is at risk of closure with a new offshore owner and an empty order book. This crisis could be solved with funding for TTC streetcars needed in Toronto.

READ MORE

Unifor continues negotiations with VIA Rail over concessions against Council 4000 members, to move Via off estoppel notices.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Unifor has been calling for paid sick days since the beginning of the pandemic, read our media release from March 2020.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Tips on how to get the most out of online video meetings and insure your voice is heard.

READ MORE