

July 23, 2020

Unifor launches a new campaign to end profit in long-term care in Ontario and fights for pay equity for long-term care workers in Nova Scotia. Alberta's Bill 32 attempts to silence workers as Premier Kenney moves to enact U.S. Republican-style labour laws. Plus, Unifor continues to achieve gains in collective bargaining.

 WHAT'S HOT

Watch the powerful new video message calling on the Ontario government to end for profit care following the tragic COVID-19 deaths in long-term care facilities.

WATCH VIDEO

 TAKE ACTION

DEMAND DOUG FORD PUT CARE BEFORE PROFITS.

SIGN THE LETTER TO PREMIER FORD

Tell Doug Ford that care must come before profits in Ontario long-term care.

READ MORE

Unifor joins other unions to call for an end to for profit long-term care homes as we launch our Care Not Profits campaign.

READ MORE

Unifor and four other Nova Scotia unions representing licensed practical nurses urge government to correct a large and unfair pay disparity between LPNs.

READ MORE

Jason Kenney's Trump-style attacks on worker's rights has sent shockwaves across the country, but local and national Unifor leaders are gearing up for the fight.

READ MORE

The pandemic has revealed the cost of years of ignoring health workers' demands as new data shows that healthcare workers represent 17% of all Ontario COVID-19 cases.

READ MORE

The short-term package for provinces lays the groundwork for recovery, but still misses bigger picture economic needs.

READ MORE

Members working at Con Cast Pipe in Guelph ratified a 3-year collective agreement, securing wage and benefit improvements, and introducing the unit's first Women's Advocate.

READ MORE

Quebec DHL workers secure first collective agreement as Unifor members which includes wage increases, a lump sum payment and improved vacation benefits.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

As the economy continues to reopen and rebuild from COVID-19 sign up to get the latest info on Unifor's campaign to #BuildBackBetter.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

We need to push back now to stop Alberta from moving towards labour laws that mirror Trump's America. Get the facts on Bill 32.

READ MORE