

July 9, 2026

Calgary Stampede BBQ dazzles for a third year, Ottawa rushes Labour Code review, Intimate Partner Violence Symposium held in B.C., North Vancouver chlorine plant campaign win, Rogers Sports & Media announce layoffs, National Indigenous Peoples Day, Quebec forestry coalition, and trade tribunal victory in Nova Scotia.

The federal government is fast-tracking a review of Canada's Labour Code. Watch this update from Lana Payne to learn what's at stake and why Unifor is fighting back.

WATCH VIDEO

Join Unifor for a day of fun, prizes and solidarity-building at Atlantic Splash, Halifax's coolest waterpark and amusement park on Saturday, July 25. Get your tickets now!

BUY TICKETS

IN THE NEWS

Boots, BBQ and solidarity! Unifor's annual Calgary Stampede BBQ brought members together to celebrate union-style.

READ MORE

Unifor condemns Rogers Sports and Media's decision to eliminate 230 jobs, including more than 80 Unifor members who produce trusted local news and programming for communities across Canada.

READ MORE

An unprecedented coalition has unveiled a shared vision for the future of Quebec's forests, calling for collaboration, industrial renewal and a just transition for workers.

READ MORE

On June 24, the B.C. Regional Council Women's Committee hosted the largest Unifor Intimate Partner Violence Symposium to-date.

Unifor Local 697 members have won their campaign to keep their vital North Vancouver chlorine plant running.

READ MORE

Workers at CKF in Nova Scotia win a trade ruling that protects good, union manufacturing jobs.

READ MORE

Unifor helped celebrate National Indigenous Peoples' Day celebrations on the unceded traditional territory of the Lig̓əᑦiᑦ, dax̓ləᑦ peoples (Campbell River).

READ MORE

WATCH VIDEO