

July 13, 2022

National strike at VIA averted with tentative agreement, sign up for tech change workshop, Quebec Director leads rally for locked out workers at Ash Grove, talks break off at Bell Clerical and Aliant, Resolute sale good for pulp and paper workers, web site to help journalists facing harassment, plus Unifor's Labour Market Insights Report says June job losses wiped out gains in May.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Watch Unifor Quebec Director Daniel Cloutier at the Ash Grove picket line, where workers at the cement plant have been locked out for 14 months, where he announced the support of local mayors for the workers.

WATCH VIDEO

On Aug. 6, 2022, as part of the Aviation Council meeting, Unifor will be running a one-day workshop to gather information to help local unions prepare their collective agreements for Technological Change. Guest speaker Jesse Hirsh will delve into reimagining how unions respond to tech change. Register by July 22.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Tentative agreement reached with VIA Rail and Unifor Council 4000 and Local 100 just hours before members were prepared to strike.

READ MORE

Talks ended between Bell and Unifor's 6,000

Paper Excellence acquires Resolute

members in the Bell Clerical and Aliant groups following a week of simultaneous negotiations, pushing Unifor ACL to declare an impasse.

READ MORE

and Unifor is relieved the company is committing to maintain staffing but awaits a review by the Competition Bureau.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Journalists facing harassment on the job can visit Unifor's Help is Here website, dedicated to helping them find the support and tools they need to deal with the harassment.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

LABOUR MARKET INSIGHTS A monthly review of labour market indicators June 2022

Unifor's Labour Market Insights Report for June shows unemployment continues to decline, down 43,000 jobs in June, more than erasing the gains made in May as jobseekers give up and exit the labour force.

READ MORE