

March 31, 2022

Ontario is last province to join child care plan, support ferry workers fired illegally, support shown for transit workers, shelter workers ratify, dairy workers begin negotiations, FFAW members rally, International Transgender Day of Visibility, Resolute chosen for pattern bargaining, Metro warehouse workers prepare for strike, plus FAQs for VIA Rail's High-Frequency Rail project.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Watch as Western Regional Director Gavin McGarrigle discusses the numerous ways transit workers in the Sea to Sky region are being supported during their strike.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor partner union ITF is calling for messages of solidarity for 800 ferry workers in the UK who were illegally fired via pre-recorded video message. Send a message today denouncing the employer and standing up for workers' rights.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Ontario's signing of the federal child care plan marks a generational turning point for Canadian families and child care workers as country-wide accessible, affordable, quality child care implementation begins.

READ MORE

Long-term care workers meet in person for the first in two and half years and plan mobilization to impact Ontario election.

READ MORE

Shelter workers at the Lennox and Addington Interval House in Napanee ratified the employer's most recent offer, ending a five-month strike.

READ MORE

Nearly one thousand fish harvesters and community supporters gathered in St. John's and Corner Brook on Monday to call attention to the unfair price setting process in Newfoundland and Labrador.

READ MORE

Close to 200 delegates gathered in Montreal for the Eastern Forestry Wage Caucus where members and leaders in the sector set bargaining priorities and selected Resolute Forest Products as the target employer.

READ MORE

Booking an appointment for a seasonal tire change might be hard if you're in the Moncton area unless car dealership employers address service centre workers' fair demands for improved wages and working conditions.

READ MORE

Unifor began bargaining with Saputo Inc. this week – March 21, 2022 – in Toronto on Local 4003's first collective agreement with the dairy company.

READ MORE

Unifor recognizes and invites all members to celebrate the International Transgender Day of Visibility on March 31, 2022.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 414 members at the Metro distribution warehouse in Etobicoke, Ontario near April 1 strike deadline.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Unifor Young Workers have been calling all members to action by saying: Our Future is Worth the Fight! Here are tips on how to mobilize.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Read our FAQ with provides key facts about the proposed privatization of VIA Rail's High-Frequency Rail project along the Toronto-Quebec City corridor.

READ MORE