

December 21, 2023

Unifor members at PWTransit begin strike action, aviation workers demand improved working conditions, childcare workers win historic gains in Nova Scotia, school bus drivers join Unifor, and a holiday message from the national leadership team.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor has donated $70,000 to support striking public service workers in Quebec.

READ MORE

Tell the government and airport authorities that you support better working conditions for aviation workers.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

An end of year message from Unifor's national leadership.

READ MORE

Lana Payne joined aviation workers to rally for improved working conditions.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 114 members at Pacific Western Transportation began strike action on December 15.

READ MORE

Read Lana Payne's op ed about how better working conditions for aviation workers will translate to improved conditions for travelers.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes 35 school bus drivers and mechanics at First Student Bus in Prescott, Ont.

READ MORE

Unifor applauds the Nova Scotia government's decision to extend benefits and a defined benefit pension plan to childcare workers.

READ MORE

Unifor denounces FTG Aerospace for using scab labour amid an ongoing labour dispute at its Toronto facility.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 3019 members are considering next steps after learning the company at Myra Falls Mine has filed for creditor protection.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 144 members at Manitoba Liquor and Lotteries will vote on a tentative agreement this week.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Unifor stands in solidarity with the Palestinian Journalists' Syndicate.

READ MORE

After a decade-long hiatus, the Unifor
Education Department successfully reintroduced the four-week Paid Education
Leave program this year.

READ MORE