

October 12, 2023

GM workers strike for the auto pattern, Unifor launches the Air Transportation Workers' Charter, health care workers sign union solidarity pact, and new mental health resources are available.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor members at GM took to the picket lines on Tuesday in a show of solidarity.

VIEW PHOTOS

Sign the petition so Parliament can make important and lasting changes for workers by fixing Employment Insurance.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Strike action by Unifor members in Oshawa, St. Catharines and Woodstock forces General Motors to deliver pattern wage, pension, retiree allowance and EV transition gains in new tentative agreement.

READ MORE

Unifor's new Air Transportation Workers' Charter of Rights points to poor working conditions as the cause of recent chaos in air travel.

Lana Payne and Rob Wildeboer make the case for stopping interest rate hikes.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor joined CUPE and SEIU to sign a solidarity pact to fight further austerity and privatization at Ontario hospitals.

READ MORE

Unifor is making mental health a priority at bargaining tables across the country and making meaningful improvements for members.

READ MORE

Unifor celebrated the inauguration of its new union office in the town of Bécancour on October 5.

READ MORE

Unifor members of Local 2245 at NAV Canada signed

Members of Unifor Local 4212, 4323 and 4320 working for the St. Lawrence

a tentative agreement
October 5.

READ MORE

Seaway Corporation voted 99% in favour of a strike.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Members of Unifor Local 114 at the Salvation Army ratified a new collective agreement, ending their 44-day strike.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Canada's labour market saw an unexpectedly strong gain of nearly 64,000 jobs in September, although a significant proportion of these jobs were concentrated in part-time work.

READ MORE