

October 19, 2023

Auto bargaining surpasses another milestone with GM ratification and turns to Stellantis, Unifor members are encouraged to fill out a survey on the impact of climate change and work, order your December 6 materials soon, Porter Airlines workers join Unifor, Bell workers ratify a new agreement, and St. Lawrence Seaway workers gear up for job action.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor has officially begun talks with Stellantis, the last Detroit Three target company, with a strike deadline set for October 29 at 11:59 p.m.

READ MORE

Fill out the national climate impact survey and win an Apple gift certificate.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members at General Motors have voted to ratify the pattern agreement by 80.5%.

READ MORE

Porter Airlines employees based out of Ottawa International Airport have joined Unifor.

Unifor health care conference centres on mental health, keeping health care public.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Interview with Early Childhood Educator Lisa Gentile.

READ MORE

On the International Day for the Eradication of Poverty Unifor stands in solidarity with all those affected by the scourge of poverty and income inequality.

READ MORE

UNIFOR

Unifor appeals for an immediate end to violence in Israel and Gaza to avert a humanitarian catastrophe.

READ MORE

Unifor members of Local 6000, 6001 and 6007 at Bell have voted to ratify a new collective agreement.

READ MORE

St. Lawrence Seaway workers issue strike notice.

READ MORE

The committee bargaining Unifor's energy and chemical pattern has reported positive developments in recent meetings with the company.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women materials are available to order.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Unifor has released its own Air Transportation Workers' Charter of Rights.

READ MORE