

October 26, 2023

Unifor members on both sides of the Ontario-Quebec border work together to shut down the St. Lawrence Seaway with strike action, B.C. Regional Council delegates mobilize against scab labour, the deadline for filling out the climate impact survey is extended, the Local Union Equity Fund is taking applications, and women members in B.C. gather to celebrate gains and strategize for the future.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor members from across the Maritimes volunteered to help build tiny homes for unhoused individuals in the Moncton area.

WATCH VIDEO

Share your insight on how climate-related impacts affect you and your workplace.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

The St. Lawrence Seaway is effectively shut down after Locals 4211, 4212 and 4323 in Ontario and Locals 4319 and 4320 in Quebec began strike action on October 22, 2023.

READ MORE

Unifor members mobilized for anti-scab legislation and discussed defeating conservatives in the next provincial election at the recent B.C. Regional Council.

READ MORE

A group of workers at Sierra Supply Chain Logistics in Hamilton are the newest members of Unifor.

READ MORE

The B.C. Regional Women's Conference was a celebration of women's contributions and accomplishments.

READ MORE

Unifor has started signing cards at multiple Amazon facilities in Metro Vancouver.

READ MORE

Show your support for the campaign to fight VIA Rail privatization.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Lana Payne stopped by the picket line to send a strong message of solidarity striking St. Lawrence Seaway workers.

WATCH VIDEO

RESOURCES

Is your local union trying to step up its work on equity issues? Unifor's Local Union Equity Fund can help.

READ MORE