

April 4, 2024

Members at CN Autoport negotiate an end to strike action, Unifor vows to push Ford Motor Company to provide all needed support to members during extended Oakville transition period, NDP government in Manitoba goes big in first budget, Atlantic Regional Director Jennifer Murray visits Westray mine memorial, Windsor Salt miners face layoffs, and bargaining is underway at Marine Atlantic ferries.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

Manitoba's 2024 budget introduced a wide range of social spending commitments and investments in programs that will grow good jobs in the province.

READ MORE

Sign the Get Canada Back on Track petition to support public rail services in Canada and help secure the future of passenger rail travel.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members at CN Autoport have ratified a three-year collective agreement, ending a 37-day strike at the transshipment facility in Eastern Passage, N.S.

READ MORE

Unifor calls on Ford Motor Company to take every action to lessen impact of extended retooling period on Oakville Assembly workers.

This week Unifor marked the 20th anniversary of the Westray Law, which holds corporations and CEOs criminally responsible for workplace deaths and injuries.

READ MORE

Unifor's Social Justice Fund has donated $50,000 over two years to help build housing for women seeking to escape domestic violence.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Windsor Salt is blaming market conditions for an impending idling of its mining operations in Windsor, Ontario.

READ MORE

Unifor applauds the federal government's announcement of a forthcoming $1 billion investment to help provide healthy meals for children and assist families during the affordability crisis.

READ MORE

On March 23, Unifor Local 4304 demonstrated its unwavering commitment to diversity and equity by hosting its second-annual drag show.

READ MORE

 BARGAINING UPDATES

The bargaining committee representing Marine Atlantic workers at Unifor Local 4285 and 4286 met with the employer recently to begin negotiations.

READ MORE