

August 22, 2024

Women's conference a success at the Family Education Centre, support hospitality workers on strike at the Residence Inn, new contracts in the media, marine, and school bus sectors, and Labour Day is around the corner.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

See photos from the 2024 Women's Conference where sisters built new networks to help each other rise!

VIEW PHOTOS

Email Residence Inn managers and urge them to return to the bargaining table and negotiate a contract that is fair and equitable.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

From representation and reproductive justice to the battle against intimate partner violence, the Women's Conference delegates learned how they can build, fight and win.

READ MORE

A donation from Unifor helped launch the ASAHTOWIKAMIK Food Hub in Regina,

On Aug. 17, community members in Kingston said thanks and goodbye to a groundbreaking facility dedicated to addressing food insecurity.

READ MORE

radio and TV station workers impacted by the recent Global News and Corus cuts.

READ MORE

Tomorrow is the last day to put your name in for the limited quantity of FREE tickets to the Wanderers Labour Day soccer game in Halifax. Register you and your family now.

READ MORE

Join the 2024 Unifor NFL Fantasy Pool with prizes up for grabs all season long!

READ MORE

The two sectors responsible for the majority of capital gains in Canada fail to provide jobs, finds economist Jim Stanford in a new study.

READ MORE

On Labour Day stand in solidarity with fellow Unifor members and show our collective strength. Find an event near you.

READ MORE

Unifor stands with Teamsters railway workers at CN and CPKC in their fight for a fair collective agreement.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor members at CTV Ottawa have ratified a new three-year deal with their employer.

READ MORE

Unifor members at Marine Atlantic have ratified two new three-year agreements.

READ MORE

Unifor members working at First Student Bus in Kingston, Ont. have a new three-year deal to celebrate.

READ MORE