

February 22, 2024

Unifor members are preparing to battle Bell Canada after massive lay-off announcement, members mourn the workplace fatality of a worker at Halifax Shipyards, Daniel Cloutier asks the federal government to amend EI to help new parents, Pink Shirt Day is around the corner, Goodwill workers join Unifor, and members are encouraged to join the fight against human trafficking.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

National President Lana Payne has a powerful message for Bell Canada Enterprises after the termination of 4,800 workers, including 800 Unifor members.

WATCH THE VIDEO

Register now for the in-person seminar "Black Excellence, Unity, and Victories: A Unifor Black History Month Celebration". It will also be available via Zoom.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Bell's record lay-offs are totally unnecessary and shows the company puts shareholder profits before workers, customers, and the public interest.

READ MORE

National President Lana Payne spoke at the House of Commons Standing Committee on Canadian Heritage about the media sector.

WATCH THE VIDEO

Quebec Director Daniel Cloutier spoke at a media conference to demand Employment Insurance stop discriminating against new parents.

READ MORE

Originating in Nova Scotia, Pink Shirt Day has grown into a global movement symbolizing the collective stand against bullying in all of its forms.

READ MORE

A new blog post explores the decline of VIA Rail's footprint and calls on the federal investment to revitalize nationwide passenger travel.

READ MORE

Unifor is mourning the tragic loss of a MWF Local 1 member at the Irving Halifax Shipyard.

READ MORE

Workers from Goodwill Industries, Ontario Great Lakes, have voted to join Unifor.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

RESOURCES

February 29 is Repetitive Strain Injury Awareness Day. Register for Unifor's

Unifor calls for stronger measures to combat human trafficking and modern-day slavery.

READ MORE

bilingual webinar on preventing RSIs in the workplace.

READ MORE