

March 21, 2024

Unifor holds a day of action against Bell job cuts and outsourcing of work. Lana Payne pushes MPs for passing of federal anti-scab legislation as Nova Scotia and Manitoba move on provincial scab bans. Winnipeg members stop a train in support of striking Autoport workers and more.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

SHAME ON Bell

Watch Unifor's 'Shame on Bell' media conference from Parliament Hill.

WATCH VIDEO

The EFAP Conference "Making the Connections on Mental Health and Addictions" will take place May 10-12.

Register now.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor rallied in Ottawa on March 19 to call out Bell Canada for postponing testimony to a parliamentary committee to answer for massive job cuts.

READ MORE

“Bill C-58, federal anti-scab legislation, must pass and be implemented without delay,” National President Lana Payne tells MPs on the HUMA Standing Committee.

WATCH VIDEO

A CN train was safely stopped during a solidarity action by Unifor members in Winnipeg as part of an escalation caused by the company’s use of scab labour in Halifax.

READ MORE

Unifor calls on the Ontario government to enhance protections for migrant workers.

READ MORE

Unifor encourages all-party support for anti-scab legislation introduced by the NDP in Nova Scotia.

READ MORE

March 21 is the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination. Read our statement.

READ MORE

March 20 is the Journée internationale de la Francophonie. As a union, we are committed to fighting discrimination, including linguistic discrimination.

READ MORE

Hundreds of Unifor members are being terminated by Bell during virtual group meetings.

READ MORE

Unifor's recent long term care conference brought together a diverse group of Ontario members united by a common bargaining goal.

READ MORE

CN Autoport talks break down as company offers less to striking workers.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Unifor celebrates International Women's Day at events from coast to coast.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Register now for Spring/Summer 2024 Paid Education Leave courses at Port Elgin.

READ MORE