

May 23, 2024

Nestle workers keep the pressure on during day 19 of their strike, Prairie Regional Council highlights, Lana Payne advocates for accelerated electric vehicle investments, scabs violate safety protocols while prolonging Waste Management Canada strike, aerospace receives a boost in Montreal, Unifor celebrates AccessAbility Week, and the federal budget disappoints on employment insurance reform.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor Prairie Regional Council delegates met to discuss recent successes and make a plan to elect a worker-friendly government in Saskatchewan.

Watch Video

The June 14 deadline to apply for a Unifor Scholarship is fast approaching! Unifor members with children entering their first year of post-secondary studies are eligible.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Ontario Regional Council and GTA members rally in support of striking Nestle workers.

READ MORE

The auto industry has turned a corner, and Canada can never go back. Read National President Lana Payne's op ed on EV investment.

READ MORE

Scabs in the Local 4268 strike at Waste Management Canada are committing significant health and safety violations.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes plans for a Montreal aerospace innovation zone and calls for a national industrial strategy.

READ MORE

National AccessAbility Week: Celebrating inclusion and working together toward a society accessible to all.

READ MORE

Unifor is disappointed by the omission of Employment Insurance reform in the 2024 federal budget.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

KB Components members ratify a new agreement following a standoff to prevent equipment removal from the plant.

READ MORE