

November 14, 2024

Walmart drivers join Unifor, NDP government in Manitoba passes labour-friendly legislation, learn more about the Keep it in the Pipe campaign, 2024 Young Workers Conference wrap up, solidarity with health care workers, Unifor condemns federal binding arbitration order, remembering John Horgan, safety commission issues order against Best Theratronics, Food Basics workers ratify new contract, and more.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor continues its momentum organizing at Walmart after the Canada Industrial Relations Board granted interim certification for drivers in Surrey, B.C.

READ MORE

Unifor members are invited to WinterFest at Canada's Wonderland on Dec. 21 or 22. Get your tickets today.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

This year's Unifor Young Workers Conference focused on the theme of "deep roots, strong growth," building upon the challenges, responsibilities and hope of young workers.

READ MORE

Unifor is celebrating the Manitoba government's adoption of long-awaited anti-scab and unionization legislation.

READ MORE

Watch the animated video explaining some of the issues that Unifor is tackling with the Keep it in the Pipe campaign.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor National President Lana Payne delivers a message of solidarity as long-term care workers in Ontario and Nova Scotia head into critical bargaining.

WATCH VIDEO

The order for binding arbitration to abruptly end a lock-out at ports in British Columbia and Quebec is a blow to workers' rights in Canada.

READ MORE

Former B.C. Premier John Horgan will be remembered by Unifor members across the country as a champion for working people.

READ MORE

The Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission has finally issued an order to Best Theratronics, confirming the company is not in compliance.

READ MORE

On the Trans Day of Remembrance, Unifor urges members to protect transgender kids.

READ MORE

October's Labour Market Insights takes a closer look at how Canada's jobs market is doing from a trade union perspective.

READ MORE

Members of Unifor Local 1075 took part in a flag-raising ceremony alongside Fort William First Nation at the Alstom plant in Thunder Bay.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor members at Food Basics have ratified a new contract containing wage increases, pension and benefit enhancements, and better job protections against automation.

READ MORE

Clear Medical Imaging walks away from negotiations, leaving Unifor members without a fair contract.

READ MORE