

October 31, 2024

Unifor members help NDP surge to within a handful of seats of government in Saskatchewan, members gear up for Nova Scotia election, worker-friendly government re-elected in B.C., delegates attend largest ever BIWOC conference, December 6 materials deadline, Clear Medical Imaging workers on strike, Lana Payne at the LERN event, transit manufacturing investment in Manitoba, major rail bargaining underway, and much more.

INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE IS AN EPIDEMIC.

At this year's Black, Indigenous and Workers of Colour Conference delegates shared community-driven strategies to break down barriers.

READ MORE

Tomorrow is the deadline to order printed posters and buttons for the National Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women on December 6. Order now!

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor is committed to protecting workers' rights and defending public services under a re-elected conservative government in Saskatchewan.

READ MORE

Collective bargaining for health care workers is interrupted by an early election call in Nova Scotia.

READ MORE

Unifor congratulates the B.C. NDP on their re-election, praising their commitment to advancing workers' rights.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 2458 members at Clear Medical Imaging strike to secure a fair agreement on wages, benefits, and working conditions.

READ MORE

Atlantic Regional Director Jennifer Murray and members of the ARC met with NL government ministers to discuss the intimate partner violence epidemic.

READ MORE

Unifor donates $15,000 to support Canadian Journalists for Free Expression to aid persecuted journalists, protect the public from disinformation and advocate for media workers rights.

READ MORE

Members at Local 434 at Maibec CanExel in Nova Scotia negotiated that a Unifor flag will now fly proudly outside their workplace.

VIEW PHOTOS

National President Lana Payne shares the state of union relations and key issues for workers at a recent Labour and Employee Relations Network event.

READ MORE

The enhancement of the New Flyer facilities in Winnipeg demonstrates that Canada can compete globally in the advanced manufacturing sector.

READ MORE

Current and former members of Unifor Local 2000 celebrated the unit's 140th anniversary.

VIEW PHOTOS

Unifor commemorates the International Day to End Impunity for Crimes Against Journalists on Nov. 2.

READ MORE

Unifor Registered Practical Nurses attended the 66th WeRPN AGM.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes progress for Google's $100 million annual contribution to Canadian news after it was granted an exemption from the Online News Act.

READ MORE

Unifor urges CN to prioritize effective rail management and collaborate with VIA Rail to ensure safe and reliable passenger services.

READ MORE

Unifor delivers a crucial arbitration victory for approximately 190 Unifor Local 1859 members formerly employed at Adient Seating plant in Tillsonburg.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes 53 new members from Porter Airlines at Halifax Stanfield International Airport to the union.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Members of Unifor Local 1090 have ratified a new three-year collective agreement that helps harmonize wage rates at Shorelines casinos in the region.

READ MORE

Negotiations with CN are ongoing, with key language issues still on the table and critical bargaining dates approaching.

READ MORE

Unifor files for conciliation in CPKC negotiations.

READ MORE

Unifor opens bargaining with VIA Rail, focusing on key issues like wages, benefits and work ownership.

READ MORE