

unILINK

December 4, 2025

Take action to end intimate partner violence, warehouse worker strategy session, Quebec's workers make their voices heard, Canadian nuclear is the right choice, Unifor welcomes forestry support, resisting airport privatization, methane emissions under the microscope in Alberta, Bill 46 in Ontario, IPV symposium, high level government meetings in N.B., Human Rights Day statement, supporting migrant workers, CommerceLink files for federal mediation, Diageo workers ratify closure agreement, and new contracts at Humber College and Sodexo.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE IS AN EPIDEMIC.

Nearly 70 Unifor members working across the supply chain of the warehouse sector held their first-ever national strategy session.

READ MORE

Take action to mark the 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence: tell your provincial representative to declare intimate partner violence an epidemic.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members took to the streets of Montreal to protest CAQ legislation designed to strip trade union rights and silence workers.

READ MORE

Canadians deserve a safe and secure nuclear energy supply chain, one that prioritizes domestic ownership and good, union jobs.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes new supports for forestry workers but continues to call for a comprehensive industrial strategy for the sector.

READ MORE

Unifor fiercely opposes airport privatization in new letter to federal ministers of finance and transport.

READ MORE

Unifor cautiously welcomes the focus on reducing methane emissions as part of the Canada-Alberta Memorandum of Understanding.

READ MORE

Read Ontario Regional Director Samia Hashi's letter to Premier Ford on the unintended consequences of Bill 46 on forestry operations.

READ MORE

Unifor members gathered with frontline service providers and activists for an Intimate Partner Violence Symposium to end the IPV epidemic.

READ MORE

Unifor met with N.B. ministers to encourage support for forestry jobs and push for strategies to tackle energy costs.

READ MORE

Human Rights Day on December 10 is a powerful reminder that human rights are not abstract principles but essential to our everyday lives.

READ MORE

Learn more about supporting migrant workers in Unifor's new guide "Strengthening Worker Unity & Inclusion".

READ MORE

Unifor members at CommerceLink Logistics in Alberta and British Columbia have filed with the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Food service workers at Humber College have ratified a strong new collective agreement, averting a strike.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 200 members at Diageo's Crown Royal plant in Amherstburg have ratified a closure agreement with the company.

READ MORE

Members of Local 2107 with Sodexo Custodial at Acadia University ratified a three-year agreement after challenging round of bargaining.

READ MORE