

February 20, 2025

Unifor members prevail in severance and termination dispute at Wescast, Quebec aerospace industry boosted by new CF-35A contract, members can pressure Ontario candidates about their policy positions, Alberta's education sector bargaining, Unifor brings worker-based recommendations to the Prime Minister's Council on Canada-U.S. Trade Relations, solidarity with Quebec's Amazon workers, Unifor members respond with professionalism and care during Delta flight accident, honouring the victims and supporting survivors of MMIWG2S violence, Human Trafficking Awareness Day, and much more.

Unifor welcomes awarding of CF-35A training contract to Quebec aerospace company CAE.

READ MORE

Members are urged to ask Ontario election candidates where they stand on workers' issues.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor Local 4207 members secured a historic $15 million settlement in the dispute with Wescast over severance and termination pay.

READ MORE

As bargaining heats up for Alberta's education sector, Unifor is holding membership meetings to strategize about next steps.

VIEW PHOTOS

Unifor is bringing the voice of workers to the Prime Minister's Council on Canada-U.S. Trade Relations.

READ MORE

Unifor members marched in solidarity with workers in Quebec who lost their jobs when Amazon closed its warehouses following unionization.

VIEW PHOTOS

Unifor vows to fight a new Quebec bill that aims to weaken the right to strike and provide an unfair advantage to employers.

READ MORE

Unifor National President Lana Payne thanked Unifor members who responded to the recent plane crash at Pearson airport.

READ MORE

Unifor members joined communities across Canada on February 14 to participate in the annual Women's Memorial March.

READ MORE

On Flag Day, members proudly wore their Unifor red to show their solidarity and commitment to defending Canadian jobs.

VIEW PHOTOS

Step up your work on equity issues, campaigns, and projects—apply today to take advantage of Unifor's Local Union Equity Fund.

READ MORE

Unifor is calling for stronger supply chain protections and industry accountability on Human Trafficking Awareness Day.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Best Theratronics continues to bargain in bad faith with no apparent intention to resolve the nearly 10-month long strike.

READ MORE