

unILINK

March 20, 2025

Bill 89 protests heat up in Quebec, a new Prime Minister means a renewed opportunity for bold leadership to build a resilient economy, International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, understanding tech-facilitated violence, Unifor Mining, Minerals, and Metals Council weighs in on tariffs, encouraging news for members at Domtar in Quebec, new calls to fix Employment Insurance, members call out dirty tactics at DHL, a new contract at Manitoba Hydro, and more.

On March 21, Unifor marks the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination.

READ MORE

Register for Unifor's April 1 webinar, "Understanding Tech-Facilitated Gender Based Violence".

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor continues to protest Bill 89, which seeks to limit the duration of strikes and lockouts in Quebec.

READ MORE

Building Canada's economy means tabling big, bold ideas. Check out Unifor's proposals to protect jobs and create a more resilient economy.

READ MORE

Unifor calls on Prime Minister Mark Carney to listen to workers and protect Canadian jobs in the face of unprecedented U.S. trade attacks.

READ MORE

Unifor's Mining, Minerals, and Metals Sector Council statement on U.S. tariffs highlights the harm potential to Canadian and U.S. workers.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes progress in talks to convert Quebec Domtar mill.

READ MORE

February's Labour Market Insights takes a closer look at how Canada's jobs market is doing from a trade union perspective.

READ MORE

Unifor joins more than 100 organizations calling on all parties to strengthen EI in the face of Trump's tariffs.

READ MORE

Unifor urges Hudson's Bay Company to honour its obligations to workers and maintain transparent communication during liquidation.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

DHL Express Canada is using "divide and conquer" tactics to undermine the elected bargaining committee.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 681 gas workers at Manitoba Hydro have ratified a new three-year contract.

READ MORE