

November 27, 2025

Local 200 president speaks about Diageo betrayal, November 29 rally in Montreal, National Skilled Trades Council, updated Unifor constitution, CTV workers join Unifor, a warning to Quebec employers, and the International Day of Persons with Disabilities.

"This isn't about a free market anymore. This is about making sure that you take care of Donald Trump," says Local 200 President about Diageo's plan to move its Crown Royal plant to the U.S.

Join us November 29 in Montréal for an inter-union and public rally against the Québec government's attacks on trade union rights.

WATCH VIDEO

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Skilled Trades delegates gathered at the Unifor National Skilled Trades Council to tackle trade war challenges head-on and chart a path forward for tradespeople.

READ MORE

Unifor's newly amended 2025 Constitution, updated at the 5th Constitutional Convention, is now available online.

READ MORE

Unifor is pleased to welcome 90 workers at Bell Media across the country who work on the CTV National News, CTV News Channel, and CTVnews.ca.

READ MORE

Lana Payne and Daniel Cloutier warn Quebec employers about the dangers of the CAQ's anti-worker Bill 3 and urge them to speak out.

READ MORE

On December 3, Unifor marks the International Day of Persons with Disabilities by reaffirming the union's commitment to accessibility, equity, and disability-led inclusion.

READ MORE