

October 16, 2025

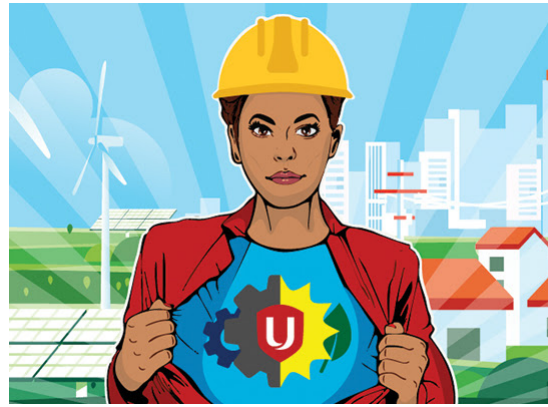

Unifor calls for action to save Brampton jobs, register for the Just Transition conference, Unifor leaders from across auto sector meet with Doug Ford, B.C. forestry unions call for protection as new tariffs hit, Newfoundland and Labrador election, International Day for the Elimination of Poverty, Blue Line Taxi strike ends, and members at Hauser ratify a new contract.

Unifor auto leadership sit down with Premier Ford to address U.S. tariffs and trade threats.

READ MORE

Courageous Voices for a Just Transition is a bilingual online gathering to discuss workers' role in transforming the economy for good sustainable jobs.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor calls for Team Canada response to Stellantis' move to shift Jeep production from Brampton to the U.S.

READ MORE

Western Regional Director Gavin McGarrigle joined B.C. Premier David Eby and forestry sector representatives to demand better during Canada-U.S. trade negotiations.

VIEW PHOTOS

Unifor is expecting swift action from the newly elected PC government in N.L. to support fishery, forestry and energy workers.

READ MORE

On International Day for the Eradication of Poverty, Unifor urges governments to act with respect, support, and justice toward families experiencing poverty.

READ MORE

Members at Blue Line Taxi in Ottawa have voted to ratify a new collective agreement, ending a three-week strike action.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 1106 members at Hauser Industries in Waterloo, Ont., have ratified a four-year agreement.

READ MORE