

unILINK

October 23, 2025

CAMI Assembly Plant setback, Unifor Just Transition conference, Crown Royal workers in their own voice, Media Council review, tariffs on heavy-duty trucks and buses, International Day to End Impunity for Crimes Against Journalists, Unifor Stellantis Council, Lana Payne testifies on international trade, Bell Clerical units open bargaining, Unifor demands jobs focus for Ontario legislature, Ear Falls curtailment, PACCAR plant under tariff threat, and new contracts at Brink's and AGI.

Wendy, a 4th-generation Crown Royal worker with 30 years on the job, says closing Diageo's Amherstburg, Ontario plant will devastate her town.

WATCH VIDEO

Courageous Voices for a Just Transition is a bilingual online gathering to discuss workers' role in transforming the economy for good sustainable jobs.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor's Media Council celebrated its 31st anniversary in Victoria, B.C. and discussed the U.S. trade war, misinformation, and reporting on sensitive topics.

READ MORE

New tariffs on heavy-duty trucks and buses are economic blackmail aimed at pulling investment and good jobs out of Canada.

READ MORE

CAMI Assembly Plant BrightDrop production is the latest casualty of the Trump administration's dangerous and destabilizing auto policies.

READ MORE

Unifor is urgently calling for a domestic procurement plan to save the Sainte-Thérèse PACCAR plant after 300 new layoffs tied to impending heavy-duty truck tariffs.

READ MORE

The Unifor Stellantis Council vowed to take any action necessary to hold Stellantis to its commitments to manufacture vehicles at the Brampton Assembly Plant.

READ MORE

Watch Lana Payne warn the International Trade Committee that Canada's industrial base is under attack.

WATCH VIDEO

Together we stand – Unifor's Bell Clerical units begin bargaining.

READ MORE

Unifor urges Ontario lawmakers to act now to protect Canadian jobs as legislature resumes.

READ MORE

Unifor calls for urgent government action after Interfor curtails its Ear Falls, Ont. sawmill.

READ MORE

On Nov. 2 Unifor marks the International Day to End Impunity for Crimes Against Journalists to shine a spotlight on how journalism is essential to free societies.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor Local 114 members at Brinks have ratified a new agreement with the cash management services company by 91%.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 2002 members at Alliance Ground International in Toronto have overwhelmingly ratified their new three-year agreement by 84%.

READ MORE