

unILINK

October 15, 2026

Unifor defends the right to strike amid proposed changes to the Canada Labour Code, Unifor's Inclusive Practices Toolkit, Forestry National Day of Action, Local managers bid to buy RYAM's Témiscaming mill, last-minute canvassing ahead of Alberta election, a call to recognize housing as a human right for the International Day for the Eradication of Poverty, Jazz Aviation Crew Scheduling members unanimously ratify new agreement, wear pink to support TP telco workers around the world.

Check out Unifor's revamped Inclusive Practices Toolkit, packed with practical tools to make every meeting, conference and event accessible to all members.

READ MORE

Unifor will hold events in more than 35 communities from coast to coast on October 16 as part of the union's Forestry National Day of Action.

WATCH VIDEO

IN THE NEWS

Lana Payne urges workers to unite and defend the right to strike, laying out what C-39 really means for collective bargaining.

WATCH VIDEO

A Canadian coalition made up of local managers seeks to purchase RYAM's Témiscaming mill.

READ MORE

Unifor members are on the doorsteps to defend a strong Alberta within a united Canada as the referendum campaign enters its final days.

READ MORE

On October 17, the International Day for the Eradication of Poverty, Unifor is calling on all levels of government to treat housing as a human right, because poverty won't end until the housing crisis does.

READ MORE

Air Canada Jazz crew scheduling members in Halifax ratify a new four-year collective agreement by 100%.

READ MORE

Unifor Telecommunications Council
unites in solidarity with TP workers around the world.

READ MORE