

September 17, 2026

Unifor shows up in force to keep airports public, register for the Northern Ontario Leadership Meeting, sign the airports petition, Eastern Canada forestry pattern set, WestJet bargaining, Amazon feels the pressure, Bombardier trade statement, letter to Melanie Joly on Stellantis, EFAP conference, Retired Workers' Council, and Enbridge Gas layoffs.

Registration for Unifor's Northern Ontario Leadership Meeting, which runs from Nov. 15-17 in Thunder Bay, is now open.

READ MORE

Send the federal government a clear message that selling off Canada's airports won't fly.

READ MORE

 IN THE NEWS

Unifor's Aviation Council rallied to oppose airport privatization during the Canada Investment Summit 2026.

READ MORE

Unifor members ratify the new Eastern Canada forestry pattern agreement

Local 531 opened bargaining with WestJet this week to improve wages, scheduling and working conditions.

READ MORE

Feeling the heat from Unifor in B.C., Amazon suddenly announced wage increases across its Canadian operations.

READ MORE

Lana Payne is demanding answers from Ottawa over plans to sell the Brampton Assembly Plant to defence contractor Roshel, putting thousands of auto jobs at risk.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor takes action to protect Canadian aerospace jobs from Trump's threats to ban Bombardier jet sales in the U.S.

READ MORE

The Unifor EFAP Conference brought representatives together to strengthen suicide prevention skills and build strategies for better mental health and addiction supports.

READ MORE

Unifor Retired Workers' Council gathered Sept. 6–11 to defend public health care, retirement security, and Canadian jobs.

READ MORE

Enbridge Gas' decision to close service centres in Thunder Bay and Waterloo is unnecessary and does a disservice to northern communities.

READ MORE