

September 24, 2026

The federal government tables new law that would restrict the right to strike, “Built Here. For Here.” campaign launch, sign-on to stop airport privatization, “The Problem With Being Funny in Canada”, WestJet workers join Unifor, leadership tours in Winnipeg, transit workers in Vancouver ratify contract, AV Nackawic mill closure, World News Day, Orange Shirt Day, international support for members at Saint-Gobain, and members working in the St. Lawrence Seaway ratify new collective agreement.

Unifor's new "Built Here. For Here." campaign underscores the importance of a made-in-Canada union.

READ MORE

Canada's airports must not be handed over to private investors. Tell government to stop the sale.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor will vigorously oppose Bill C-39's attacks on the right to strike. The bill would entrench new powers to override workers' right to fair, free collective bargaining.

READ MORE

Unifor is calling on the federal government to recognize comedy as an art form with the campaign "The Problem with Being Funny in Canada".

READ MORE

WestJet contact centre workers in Calgary have voted to join Unifor, taking an important step toward gaining a stronger voice against outsourcing.

READ MORE

Poirier, McGarrigle, and Desforges were in Winnipeg this week to meet with members and tour several workplaces represented by Unifor.

READ MORE

Unifor Locals 111 and 2200 members ratify a new collective agreement with Coast Mountain Bus Company.

READ MORE

Unifor condemns the closure of the AV Nackawic mill, a devastating decision that will put 228 Unifor members out of work.

READ MORE

Misinformation is the next battleground in the fight to protect democracy, public health and the public's right to know.

READ MORE

IndustriALL expressed its global solidarity with Unifor Local 12, now eight weeks into strike action at Saint-Gobain manufacturing in Plattsville, Ont.

READ MORE

Quebec and Ontario members at St. Lawrence Seaway ratify a new four year contract with wage gains and no concessions.

READ MORE

September 30 marks the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. It is a day to honour the survivors of residential schools and to remember the children who never came home.

READ MORE