

November 25, 2021

Unifor launches a drive to organize warehouse workers, and you can show your support, landmark contract boosts pay at Loblaw, sick day failure in BC, Unifor donates to flood relief, aviation sector looks to the future, the federal government needs to take an active role in aerospace, and download the new poster for National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Watch real frontline workers as they share why Unifor is the right choice for warehouse workers in this feature video, translated into multiple languages to maximize outreach.

WATCH VIDEO

On Black Friday, show your support for warehouse workers on social media by sharing Unifor's new 'Warehouse Workers Unite' campaign. Make sure to include the #WarehouseWorkersUnite and #Unifor hashtags on Twitter.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor is uniting workers in warehousing, distribution and logistics facilities across the country to fight for health and safety protections, fair wages, better working conditions, and respect on the job. The 'Warehouse Workers Unite' campaign launches on Black Friday, as the holiday shopping season ramps up.

READ MORE

A landmark contract delivers significant

Unifor Local 914 members who treat pay increases, improves benefits and elevates working conditions for 1,000 warehouse workers at the Loblaw Distribution Centre in Ajax, Ontario.

READ MORE

The provincial government has failed B.C. workers by succumbing to pressure from employers to minimize paid sick days says Unifor.

READ MORE

To recognize the National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women next month, Unifor is launching a new poster to commemorate the day on December 6, 2021.

READ MORE

toxic waste at the Clean Harbors site in Sarnia went on strike Monday, fighting for gender equality, fairness and wages that keep up with inflation.

READ MORE

Families affected by the floods in British Columbia will benefit from a $60,000 donation by Unifor to the Red Cross.

READ MORE

Unifor's Aviation Council held its first meeting since COVID-19 caused a shutdown of the airline sector. New council members were elected and among the topics discussed included new technology affecting the future of work, vaccine mandates and pay equity.

READ MORE

Unifor National President Jerry Dias called on the federal government to double down on Canada's aerospace industry in an op-ed published in The Hill Times this week.

READ MORE

Three Unifor Action Centres in Oshawa and Thunder Bay will continue to support laid off workers in 2022 after the union successfully pushes the Ontario government to extend their operations.

READ MORE

Container truck drivers at two large Metro Vancouver port trucking companies voted overwhelmingly to strike if necessary to achieve a fair agreement.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 2002 ratifies new three-year deal with Nasittuq.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

As bargaining continues for the first Unifor collective agreement at WestJet, watch the video about how the workers in Vancouver and

RESOURCES

Unifor is urging all staff, local union executive board members and bargaining committee representatives to consider tabling this sample language in racial justice or equity language all

Calgary got here.

WATCH VIDEO

future rounds of negotiations with employers.

READ MORE