

January 26, 2023

The B.C. government's financial investment in paper and pulp will recall jobs at Crofton Mill. Unifor vows to protect Postmedia workers, in light of company's vague details in future cost-cutting plans. Sign-up for the 4-Week PEL Program is open. Register for an EV conference next month, where Unifor National President Lana Payne will be a guest panelist. Another Bank of Canada interest hike risks workers' jobs and pushing economy into a recession. Welcome to our new casino members in B.C. Unifor calls on Bell Canada to commit to better resourcing mental health. Plus: Bargaining update from CN.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor National President Lana Payne will be speaking at the EV Innovation and Technology Conference on Feb. 8. in Etobicoke. Learn more about the conference and add it to your schedule.

REGISTER HERE

The 4-Week PEL (Paid Education Leave) is back! Learn more about this leadership program and apply today.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

More than 100 Paper Excellence workers at the pulp and paper mill in Crofton, B.C. will return to work following investments from the federal and provincial governments.

READ MORE

Unifor is looking at all options to protect media workers after Postmedia announced job cuts at newspapers across the country.

READ MORE

The Bank of Canada's repeated interest rate hikes puts jobs at stake and risks pushing the economy into recession, while corporate profiteering is given a free pass.

READ MORE

Workers at the Cascades casino in Delta, B.C. became Unifor's newest members after the B.C. Labour Board certified the unit on Jan. 24, 2023.

READ MORE

For Bell Let's Talk Day this year, Unifor asks that the company commit to better resourcing mental health research and data as a first step towards promoting better workplace culture and mental health. Read our letter.

READ MORE

The Canadian Multi-Mission Aircraft procurement is an opportunity for government to support and help grow Canada's aerospace industry, skills, knowledge and product offerings to show the world what we are capable of. Read Unifor's letter to Ministers Anita Anand and François-Philippe Champagne.

READ MORE

Unifor Council 4000 and Local 100 continued contract negotiations with CN the week of Jan. 16-20 in Montreal. This was the first sessions with the assistance of federal conciliators.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Unifor members are participating in the upcoming Raising the Roof “One Night” event on Feb. 7. to raise money for homelessness prevention programs. Find

RESOURCES

Questions about EI Special Benefits or Work Sharing? Download new out how you can join fellow members at an event in your local community or donate to support.

READ MORE

resources today.

READ MORE