

October 5, 2023

Unifor members commemorated the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation and the International Day of Older Persons, an unprecedented effort in Manitoba elected a new government, Lana Payne describes the strength in pattern bargaining, and the Local 114 strike at the Salvation Army comes to a close.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Watch Unifor National President Lana Payne describe why pattern bargaining works.

WATCH VIDEO

Order your materials today for the December 6 International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members helped elect Canada's first First Nations premier, Manitoba NDP Leader Wab Kinew.

READ MORE

Unifor health and safety activists attended a two-day forum hosted in Halifax.

Unifor members celebrated the International Day of Older Persons on October 1.

READ MORE

Unifor members and their families marched and participated in Winnipeg's Orange Shirt Day powwow.

READ MORE

October 4 serves to commemorate the lives of missing and murdered Indigenous women, girls, and two-spirited persons.

VIEW PHOTOS

READ MORE

In honour of the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, Unifor members across the country wore orange t-shirts.

VIEW PHOTOS

Local 100 has begun negotiations with Autoport, a vehicle processing and transshipment facility.

Members of Unifor Local 114 at the Salvation Army have ratified a new collective agreement, ending their 44-day strike.

READ MORE

Members of Unifor Local 4005 at the Discovery Centre in Halifax have voted unanimously to strike if necessary.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

On September 25 more than 8,000 Ontarians rallied against Doug Ford's health care privatization agenda.

WATCH VIDEO

RESOURCES

Registration is open for Unifor's fall and winter Area Schools.

READ MORE