

February 15, 2024

Ontario Premier Doug Ford ends legal fight after wage caps on public sector workers is ruled unconstitutional (again), Unifor and the the Canadian Health Coalition take to Parliament Hill to fight for public funding for health care, the Skilled Trades Council meets in Niagara Falls, Unifor members march for justice for MMIWG2S, and two energy sector locals ratify new agreements.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

The Ontario Court of Appeal has upheld a ruling that found the Ford government's 1% wage cap for public sector workers unconstitutional.

READ MORE

Show your support by purchasing and wearing an 'End the Stigma, Mental Health Matters' t-shirt.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members and leadership joined hundreds on Parliament Hill to rally in support of public health care.

READ MORE

Unifor members marched in the 2024 Women's Memorial March in Vancouver to remember and honour missing and murdered Indigenous women, girls and 2SLGBTQIA+.

READ MORE

Delegates discussed the removal of barriers and protection of Skilled Trades jobs at the National Skilled Trades Council meeting.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes the announcement of billions in federal funding for the Ontario's health care system.

READ MORE

Unifor is proud to offer our 4-week paid education leave program for union activists and leaders.

READ MORE

Cascades Containerboard will close its plant in Trenton, Ont, throwing more than 100 Unifor Local 1470 members out of work.

READ MORE

Members of Unifor Local 510 voted 93% in favor of a new collective agreement ending the two-week Ro-Bus strike.

READ MORE

Local 222 drives changes toward equity and inclusion at GM Oshawa.

READ MORE

Wage gains and vacation improvements are highlights of a new collective agreement for Unifor Local 200 members working at Plains Midstream in Sarnia.

Wages, safety improvements, and equitable workplace accountability are priorities for Unifor Local 3018 as bargaining opens with Taseko this month.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 100 members at Autoport in Halifax have filed for a federal conciliator this month.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor members refining and distributing petroleum products at the Shell refinery in Sarnia ratified a new three-year contract.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Order your International Women's Day posters before the February 19 deadline.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

January's Labour Market Insights takes a closer look at how Canada's jobs market is doing from a trade union perspective.

READ MORE