

February 8, 2024

Healthcare workers and their allies turned out en masse for a rally to boost hospital staffing and wages, materials for IWD are available for order, Danielle Smith is the latest conservative premier to attack trans kids' rights, Quebec's forestry workers are up in arms over the government's distorted approach to protecting the province's forestry industry, and Unifor members at PWTransit end their two-month strike with a new contract.

Find out what's happening in your community for the February 14 MMIWG2S Memorial March.

READ MORE

Order your International Women's Day materials before the February 24 deadline.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Healthcare workers held a massive rally in Toronto demanding stronger public investment in hospital staffing and fair wages.

READ MORE

Unifor condemns Alberta Premier Danielle Smith's anti-Trans crusade.

READ MORE

Unions representing workers in Quebec's forestry sector say the Ministère des Ressources naturelles et des Forêts is going in the wrong direction for forestry sector consultations.

READ MORE

Unifor stands in solidarity with striking Mexican auto workers at Audi.

READ MORE

The Canadian Air Navigation Specialists Association Unifor Local 1016 has filed for conciliation.

READ MORE

Unifor members at PWTransit have ratified a new agreement, ending a two-month-long strike.

READ MORE

Unifor members at CNTL to apply for federal conciliation.

St Marys Cement workers ratify new three-year deal.

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Register now for Black Excellence, Unity, and Victories: A Unifor Black History Month Celebration.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Unifor
Social Justice
Fund

Register for a February 20 webinar that explores some of the projects supported through Unifor's Social Justice Fund.

READ MORE