

unILINK

December 14, 2017

Across the country, Unifor members are giving generously in their communities and supporting those who are in need of help, including locked out workers.

WHAT'S HOT

This month is marked by an outpouring of kindness by members. Let us know what your local is up to.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

Take part in an online solidarity action for Local 597 members who are approaching one year lock-out.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Aerospace firm set to ruin another holiday season for locked-out workers in Newfoundland.

READ MORE

Unifor wins an injunction to prevent random drug and alcohol testing at Suncor.

READ MORE

Long overdue: ON nurses will soon be included in PTSD coverage for first responders.

READ MORE

Unifor's Social Justice Fund donates $146,000 to women's shelters across Canada.

READ MORE

Ontario government recognizes Trans Day of Remembrance, Unifor pushes other politicians to follow.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Progress at the bargaining table with Bell Aliant, including negotiating paid leave for domestic violence survivors.

READ MORE

Unifor members with First Student Canada school bus ratify their first contract and eliminate unpaid work.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

RESOURCES

International Human Rights Day reminds us of the need for a collective response in the face of human rights violations.

READ MORE

Want to know more about the science behind climate change? Unifor breaks it down in this new primer.

READ MORE

