

unILINK

August 9, 2018

Delegates at the 2018 Women's Conference sent solidarity and support to striking workers in Thunder Bay and locked out workers in Gander. Join us in the fight for these workers' rights, and find out which workplaces are celebrating gains in new collective agreements.

Lana Payne, Atlantic Regional Director, makes the case for a sustainable future for the Northern Pulp mill in Pictou County.

READ MORE

Demand Premier Dwight Ball modernize labour laws in light of the 597-day lock out in Gander by an American employer.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Striking workers and supporters shut the Port Arthur Health Centre after 121 days on a picket line in Thunder Bay.

READ MORE

Despite lowering of assessed anti-dumping duties on Canadian paper mills, this approach to tariffs is deeply misguided.

READ MORE

Canadian Council starts in one week! Here's everything you need to know to participate or follow along from home.

READ MORE

National Retired Workers Council is set for September 2-7, 2018 at Unifor Family Education Centre in Port Elgin.

READ MORE

Nearly 400 women from across Canada attended the biggest ever Unifor Women's Conference.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Local 2107 at East Coast Credit Union reach tentative agreement, averting a strike at three branches in Nova Scotia.

READ MORE

Community shows solidarity with Local 597 members at D-J Composites at rally on 597th day of a shameful lock out.

READ MORE

Nova Scotia health care workers

Members at locals 1090 and 504

get new collective agreement after mediator issues an award.

READ MORE

at three casinos ratify new collective agreement with Great Canadian Casinos.

READ MORE

200 workers at Local 1403 ratify new collective agreement with the employer, Canadian Kraft Paper.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Thunder Bay City Council unanimously encouraged employer to negotiate with Port Arthur Health Centre striking workers.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Use this Twitter guide to amplify your voice and transform how you reach your members and the community.

READ MORE

