

unILINK

August 30, 2018

Labour Day festivities are in full swing from coast to coast to coast – and you're invited. This week, we showed solidarity with Quebec members, stood up for journalists and celebrated the thousands of new members who have joined our ranks. Scroll down for more.

 WHAT'S HOT

Join us as Unifor celebrates five years

TAKE ACTION

Special Guest: Chris Buckley, Ontario Federation of Labour President

Justice Thursday, Sept 6
Oshawa 4:00-7:00 p.m.
Unifor Local 222 Union Hall, 1425 Phillip Murray Ave

Food and refreshments provided

 UNIFOR
unifor.ca

Food and refreshments provided

Attend this town hall in Oshawa and join the of being a union for everyone at rallies across Canada. Details here:

READ MORE

conversation as we re-imagine what a People's Trade agenda might look like.

READ MORE

 IN THE NEWS

National President speaks about the need for a free press that is able to do its job without fear or intimidation.

READ MORE

18 press operators at Local 2000 lose their jobs as Times Colonist Newspaper moves printing to a non-union press.

READ MORE

Unifor urges good Canadian jobs be prioritized, as Aeroplan announces it will be purchased by a consortium of companies.

READ MORE

More than 20,000 workers organized across Canada, in every sector of the economy and in every province and territory.

READ MORE

On our fifth birthday, we recommit to fighting for workers' rights at the bargaining table and through political action.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Local 2002 members sign four-year agreement with Saint John Hilton, with better wages, dental benefits and more.

READ MORE

Local 4501 members at Taylor Ford & Lincoln in Moncton ratify agreement with annual wage increases and other gains.

READ MORE

Big win for FFAW-Unifor as $189 million funding announced to extend EI coverage for seasonal workers.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Members in Toronto held a solidarity picket in support of Local 6000 workers at Oldcastle's Montreal, Quebec plant.

READ MORE

Check out this final report for updates on the Local Union Task Force as Unifor works to address the needs of locals.

READ MORE

