

December 13, 2018

Unifor launches our fight back to #SaveOshawaGM today, and VIA Rail workers protest to keep jobs in Canada, while N.S. activists celebrate announcement of paid domestic violence leave and we recognize International Human Rights Day.

 WHAT'S HOT

In this video, B.C. Regional Council delegates share heartening wins this year and plans to

 TAKE ACTION

Sign the petition and tell GM Canada to #SaveOshawaGM and address upcoming challenges.

READ MORE

order your free holiday ornament.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

ORC 2018 delegates made it clear that they represent a bold movement to defend workers' rights in the province.

READ MORE

N.S. activists celebrate as Paid Domestic Violence Leave is finally announced.

READ MORE

$146,000 donated to women's shelters to recognize National Day of Remembrance and Action on Violence Against Women.

READ MORE

Unifor encourages swift implementation of CleanBC plan to cut carbon pollution while ensuring economic growth.

READ MORE

As Canada seeks economic growth without also increasing greenhouse gas emissions, here's what the future may hold.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Wage increases, new full-time work and guaranteed hours for part-time workers part of Local 1996-O's new agreement.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Workers distribute leaflets at VIA Rail stations in Vancouver, Winnipeg, Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec City, and Moncton.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Read our statement on International Human Rights Day (Dec 10), including steps you can take to defend human rights.

READ MORE

