

December 20, 2018

We are full steam ahead to #SaveOshawaGM, with a petition and TV commercial launched. As 2018 draws to a close, we look at food bank and shelter donations made and next steps for Just Transition. Have a restful holiday season - see you in 2019 with the next issue of Unilink.

 WHAT'S HOT

#SaveOshawaGM launches TV ad as GM

 TAKE ACTION

Canadians did not bail out GM only to looks to close Oshawa and expand in Mexico, after Canada gave them $11 billion.

READ MORE

have GM bail on us – sign this petition to call for product allocation to Oshawa.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

During December, locals delivered donations to support food banks and women's shelters across the country.

READ MORE

Delegates attend the Katowice Climate Change Conference and advocate for the adoption of Just Transition measures.

READ MORE

VIA betrays Canadians by awarding a $989-million contract to a German company and putting hundreds out of work.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Tentative collective agreement reached between CN and Local 100, representing 2,100 workers across Canada.

READ MORE

Local 114 members at the Salvation Army ratify an agreement with wage increases and improved statutory holiday working requirements.

READ MORE

NABET 700-M Unifor ratify agreement with wage increases, a new Women's Representative and other significant gains.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Ontario Regional Council saw members recommit to advocating for workers' rights – watch the highlights here.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

On International Migrants Day, Unifor reaffirms its enduring commitment to protect migrants' human rights.

READ MORE

