

February 22, 2018

February ends with two important recognition days – find out what these days are and how you and your local union can participate.

WHAT'S HOT

Repetitive Strain Injury Day is February 28. Unifor wants to hear from you about your work and RSIs. Take the survey now.

TAKE ACTION

Voice your opposition to video surveillance on trains. Bill C-49 is still before the Senate, so the time is now!

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Ontario members provide input on CLC disaffiliation during regional tour.

READ MORE

Canada's jobs market is stronger than the headlines suggest, especially for provinces with a higher minimum wage.

READ MORE

B.C. NDP government's new budget includes ambitious plans for childcare and strengthening public services.

READ MORE

February 28 is Pink Shirt Day – wear pink to take a stand against homophobia and bullying.

READ MORE

New guidance for local unions on per capita dues to federations of labour and local labour councils.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Two-week strike ends at Motor City Chrysler with a gains for workers.

READ MORE

Bargaining preparation underway in N.S. for long-term care sector.

READ MORE

School bus sector in Ontario needs an overhaul to address low wages, precarious work and driver shortages.

READ MORE

Members choose Resolute as eastern pattern bargaining target, talks to start soon.

READ MORE

Layoffs at Global will mean further cuts to local news, as news rooms continue to shrink.

READ MORE

Efforts of members at GM are celebrated at the launch of the new truck in Oshawa.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

This new video captures Unifor's energy on the streets in Montreal during the last round of NAFTA negotiations

READ MORE

Check out Pride in Print, featuring the latest news from the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer communities.

READ MORE