

July 26, 2018

New members have joined our ranks in Mississauga and Montreal; our mobile app is close to being launched and Labour Day posters are now available for locals to order. Find out more about these and other updates in this week's issue.

WHAT'S HOT

Unifor welcomes 158 warehouse workers at Kuehne + Nagel in Mississauga – the second location to join us in two months.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

This Labour Day celebrate Unifor's fifth birthday with family and friends. Use this poster to promote events in your area.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Imposing tariffs on all auto imports into the U.S would devastate the entire North American auto industry, warns Unifor.

READ MORE

With three weeks until Canadian Council, delegates can now prepare by reading the National President's Recommendations.

READ MORE

Patient safety at risk with private clinic model after 4,600 Ottawa patients warned of possible hepatitis and HIV.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes 13 new mechanics and parts workers at a Hyundai dealership in Montreal borough of Saint-Laurent.

READ MORE

Unifor will keep rank-and-file activists informed and engaged with a new mobile app launching at Canadian Council.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

East Coast Credit Union cuts benefit pension plan; Local 2107 prepares for legal strike/lock out position on August 2.

READ MORE

Volvo workers at Locals 9114 and 1044 in St. Claire, Quebec ratify new collective agreement.

READ MORE

How you can help our sisters and brothers in Thunder Bay, Gander, and Montreal?

READ MORE

Nearly 1,800 Great Canadian Casino workers from Locals 1090, 504 and 252 to vote on tentative agreement this week.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

RESOURCES

For more than 100 days, 65 sisters have been on strike in Thunder Bay, Ontario. Here's why they need our support.

READ MORE

Heading to bargaining? Use this guide on workplace harassment model language and make your workplace better for all.

READ MORE

