

unILINK

June 28, 2018

This past week Unifor has seen bargaining wins from British Columbia to Halifax and in between; the union released a statement against Trump's regressive policies; and keep reading for more info on how we're fighting back post-Ontario election and strengthening activism at every level.

WHAT'S HOT

Planning is underway for the next phase of the Local Union Task Force,

TAKE ACTION

Watch this short video on Unifor's Future of Work conference in Halifax, August 15.

aiming to deepen grassroots activism.

Register at www.unifor.org/futureofwork!

READ MORE

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

I SHOP CANADA

Unifor launched a national I Shop Canada campaign to support good jobs and promote made-in-Canada products and services.

READ MORE

Unifor activist appointed to B.C. Wild Salmon Council to advise on public policy and provide guidance to government.

READ MORE

2,720+ Ontario members contacted by live phone surveys, 77,000+ via recorded voice broadcasts & 8,000+ members' doors knocked.

READ MORE

The Order's Up movement is equipping employers and workers with tools to prevent and address workplace harassment.

READ MORE

Unifor members hear why pushing for social change includes electing progressive workers of colour to government.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Local 522 strike in Quebec illustrates mounting frustration of members in the face of difficult labour relations.

READ MORE

Irving Shipyard workers ratify agreement that increases wages and improves RRSP, vacation, and health care benefits.

READ MORE

New contracts for locals 112 and 673 include wage and pension increases, a retirement incentive program and more.

READ MORE

Cascade aerospace workers sign new agreement, gains include: cost of living increase to wages, improved health and safety language, and better scheduling provisions.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Trump's immigration policy will send parents and children to detention centres; Unifor calls for entire reversal.

READ MORE

Share this video to help spread the word on why Unifor is pushing for a better NAFTA deal that respects all workers.

READ MORE