

unILINK

March 8, 2018

Happy International Women's Day! We take action when it comes to politics because it works! Read about our collective successes and find out what activists are pushing for in B.C.

WHAT'S HOT

On IWD, we celebrate all of the Unifor women that inspire countless activists and lead.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

Take a moment to sign the petition to save local news!

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Activists lobby B.C. government on health and safety, economic security for women and labour law reform.

READ MORE

U.S. uses aluminum tariffs as NAFTA bargaining chip, Canada takes a firm stand.

READ MORE

Unifor urges Nova Scotia to pass domestic violence leave and follow lead of other jurisdictions.

READ MORE

New court of appeal ruling on Suncor upholds ban on random testing, workers' right to privacy kept intact.

READ MORE

Trilateral trade union solidarity at NAFTA talks in Mexico, unions share strategies on raising labour conditions.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Workers at KIA Longueuil, Quebec approve new contract, ending lock-out.

READ MORE

Bell Canada Clerical workers ratify agreement that improves working conditions and job security.

READ MORE

Auto parts members reach pattern agreements at four Windsor, Ontario suppliers.

READ MORE

Workers at a northwestern Ontario mill vote in a new collective agreement.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

RESOURCES

Unifor is now offering one more week

Political action works! Read this Unifor overview of what workers gained with Ontario's labour law reform, Bill 148.

READ MORE

of the summer Family Education program. Find out how to sign up.

READ MORE

