

March 29, 2018

From leading international delegations to forming coalitions with other unions in different provinces, we're putting into practice the principle of unity toward the goal of improving work conditions for all.

WHAT'S HOT

The Ontario election is coming and there's a lot at stake; join Unifor's member-based campaign - make this election count.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

Stop Trump's bullying and sign our petition calling on the government to reject tariffs threatening pulp and paper jobs.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor leads a delegation with Mexican labour leaders, bringing the call for a better NAFTA for all workers to MPs.

READ MORE

The Ontario budget can address the health care crisis, gender wage gap, and more according to a Unifor submission.

READ MORE

B.C. premier meets Unifor's northern members to talk resource jobs and how to challenge destructive tariffs.

READ MORE

Unifor joins health care unions in historic campaign to bargain collectively on behalf of Ontario's hospital workers.

READ MORE

Learn about Unifor's recommendations to shift B.C.'s labour laws to better protect workers and defend unionization.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Two groups of school bus drivers signed contracts with wage increases, access to Paid Education Leave, and more.

READ MORE

Four unions in Nova Scotia, including Unifor, come together to support 6,500 health care workers in bargaining.

READ MORE

Caesars Windsor casino workers vote overwhelming for strike action over wages, pensions, and job security.

READ MORE

Quebec City members making spa accessories ratified a new contract with wage increases and Paid Educational Leave.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

You don't want to miss this great new animated video from Unifor's leadership. Check it out and be sure to share!

READ MORE

Transition is happening in the pulp and paper sector. Find out what this means for our members in eastern Canada.

READ MORE