

October 25, 2018

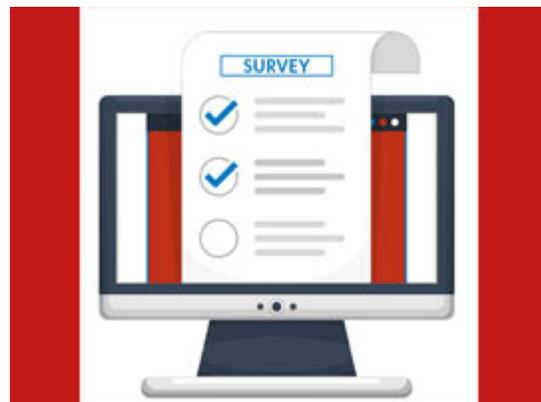

From lobbying at Parliament Hill to save local news, to rallying for health care and workers' rights in Ontario; from supporting progressive change in New Brunswick to backing fishery recommendations in British Columbia, current and new members are mobilizing nation-wide.

WHAT'S HOT

Activists lobby in Ottawa to urge the

TAKE ACTION

To our members in telecommunications,

federal government to address the crisis in Canadian journalism and #SaveLocalNews.

READ MORE

let your union know how performance management in the workplace has affected you.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Ford government sides with business lobby over the rights of working people with "Making Ontario Open for Business Act."

READ MORE

Unifor calls on New Brunswick MLAs to support Throne Speech that includes advances for workers, and supports for young people and women.

READ MORE

Fish harvesters in BC support recommendations from the provincial government's Wild Salmon Advisory Council's report.

READ MORE

Unifor airs radio ad in rural Saskatchewan in response to hateful ads released by a far-right think-tank.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes more than 370 new members in the energy, health care, and gaming sectors in Ontario and Alberta.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Workers at the Toromont-Orenda plant, Local 112 members, ratify a new three-year collective agreement.

READ MORE

Durham Region transit workers, Local 222 members, ratify a new four-year collective agreement with PWTransit.

READ MORE

Nova Scotia Council of Nursing Unions and employer group make significant progress; bargaining to resume October 30.

READ MORE

Next round of bargaining with CN Rail scheduled for November 12 to 16 in Montreal, following discussions last week.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

RESOURCES

See photos from #OHCRally4Care as Unifor activists rallied for public health care with the Ontario Health Coalition.

READ MORE

Jennifer Moreau of Local 2000 shares what the Media Action Plan proposes and how it can help #SaveLocalNews.

READ MORE

