

September 13, 2018

Get ready to join us in Gander to show solidarity with locked-out workers and stand up to a U.S. employer using scabs. We are also launching a mentoring program, making pharmacare wins and pushing to protect cultural content in a new trade deal.

WHAT'S HOT

Education Department launches mentorship

TAKE ACTION

Make your travel plans and join us in program to connect members across generations and to enhance knowledge sharing.

READ MORE

Gander, NL Sept 26 for a solidarity rally on week 92 of a shameful lock-out.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

More than 800 workers at Fairmont Royal York, Toronto vote on joining Unifor; ballot boxes to stay sealed until hearing.

READ MORE

“Where was the outrage for the last 630 days?” asks Lana Payne as Unifor names and shames scabs, and starts a national

As we ramp up the call to implement national pharmacare, more and more employers and municipalities are conversation on their use.

READ MORE

Unifor condemns the conviction of two journalists in Myanmar, imprisoned for covering the Rohingya crisis.

READ MORE

coming on board.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes new expert advisory panel on Nova Scotia's long-term care system, urges workers and unions be consulted.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Tentative agreement reached between Local 7575 and the Toronto Marriott Bloor Yorkville, averting a strike.

READ MORE

Council of Unions Health Support Unit, Nova Scotia Health Authority, IWK Children's Hospital mediation set for Nov 23.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

National President weighs in on the need for a new NAFTA deal to account for means to protect Canadian media content.

READ MORE

Here's how we celebrated Labour Day and Unifor's 5th birthday at marches, parades, picnics and concerts across Canada

READ MORE

