

September 20, 2018

Delegates gather for the Human Rights Conference, rail sector members strategize for the future and workers secure majors wins at Toronto Marriott Bloor Yorkville. Also learn about the latest on CPTPP and new videos from Gander and the health care sector.

WHAT'S HOT

These are the scabs in your community.

TAKE ACTION

LOCKED OUT 21 MONTHS

Help us get these Newfoundlanders a fair contract.

Watch part two of the video that sparked a national conversation about the use of scabs in Gander.

READ MORE

Write the CEO of D-J Composites, who has never been on the picket line, as members face a third Christmas locked out.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Rushed debate on the CPTPP legislation would hurt Canada's trade position at a crucial point in NAFTA negotiations.

READ MORE

Members from the rail sector, representing 9,200 workers, discuss strategies to establish a common front for bargaining.

READ MORE

If the federal government introduced universal pharmacare it would save $11 billion a year.

 UNIFOR
The Union. The Difference.

unifor.org/pharmacare

Voice your support for national pharmacare – participate in the federal government's online consultation today.

MORE

Delegates look to their own experiences and to our shared history to plan a path forward at the Human Rights Conference.

READ MORE

National President reaches out to Premier Dwight Ball again, demanding meeting to end 21-month lockout of 30 workers.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Local 7575 members ratify a path-breaking collective agreement, with significant economic gains and breakthroughs.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Letter sent to all CLC affiliates, in light of members' over-whelming vote to

RESOURCES

Health care workers do more with less, every day – hear from them about how the support NEB's decision to disaffiliate.

work they do improves patients' lives.

READ MORE

READ MORE

